DETAILED ACTION

Objections

Specification

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure. The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," "the invention discloses," etc.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to because of improper crosshatching, some items that should be crosshatched are not. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either

Art Unit: 3679

"Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 22-24, 26-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Courtot (US 3,026,129).

As to claim 22, Courtot discloses a swivel comprising, two coaxial, mutually rotatable members (5, 10) and having means (8) for transferring operating and/or controlling media between the members, wherein said means are flexible hoses or cables between the members.

As to claim 23, Courtot discloses a swivel wherein the hoses or cables (8) are elastically extensible.

As to claim 24, Courtot discloses a swivel wherein hoses or cables (8) are spiral hoses or cables.

As to claim 26, Courtot discloses a swivel wherein a cylindrical housing (formed by the union of the cylindrical sidewalls of 5 and 10) for enclosing the hoses or cables between the two members is provided.

As to claim 27, Courtot discloses a swivel wherein one of the members is a lower connection ring (10) and the other member is a cover (5), the cover being connected to a central shaft (14), in relation to which the lower connection ring is journalled (the shaft acts as a journal surface on which 10 rides).

As to claim 28, Courtot discloses a swivel wherein the cover (5) is connected to the central shaft (14) by means of a quick-coupling (16).

As to claim 29, Courtot discloses a swivel wherein the lower connection ring (10) and the cover (5) are provided with through connection holes (through which the shaft passes and through which hose ends-6 pass).

As to claim 30, Courtot discloses a swivel wherein the central shaft (14) is arranged on a base plate (the end surface of 10).

As to claim 31, Courtot discloses a swivel wherein the mutual rotation between the two members is limited to no more than one full revolution (paragraph 2 lines 30-35).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Courtot in view of Sarson (US 4,193,616). Courtot discloses a swivel wherein the hoses or cables (8) are connected to the members (5, 10). Courtot fails to disclose the use of a quick connect coupling to connect the hose to the members.

Sarson teaches the use of a quick connect coupling on a tube end, for the purpose of improving the initial assembly and reducing costs. Accordingly it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the swivel joint art at the time of applicant's invention to modify the arrangement of Courtot to include a quick connect fitting such as that taught by Sarson to improve the initial assembly of the swivel and reduce its cost.

Art Unit: 3679

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Korsgaard (US 6,338,505), Sauder (US 6,234,417), Stafford (US 4,183,559), Carn (US 4,174,127), Cole (US 3,012,801), Bennett (US 2,641,629), Watson (US 3,477,746) are cited for pertaining to swivel joints with internal wiring or hydraulic conduits.
